NHBA SPREADS CHRISTMAS CHEER TO NIAGARAS YOUTH

DECEMBER 7, 2022 – ST.CATHARINES, ON — On Tuesday, December 6, 2022 The Niagara Home Builders' Association hosted their annual Christmas Celebration and Elimination Draw, which took place at the Holiday Inn Convention Centre in St. Catharines.

For over 11 years, the NHBA has partnered with Big Brothers Big Sisters of Niagara in order to raise donations for the youth they provide support services to on a daily basis.

This year saw a record number of donations from members, which included new, unwrapped gifts for youth ages 6-18 years old

"We are honoured to continue to assist Big Brothers, Big Sisters year after year through the generosity of our Member companies", comments NHBA President Richard Lawrence. "This agency is a staple of our community, and we applaud their positive contributions throughout the Niagara Region"

A plethora of toys, books, games and gift cards were delivered to the BBBS St. Catharines office on Wednesday morning, where staff members met the donations with open arms. The donations will be sorted and distributed based upon age groups.

The Mission Statement of the BBBS is to enable life-changing mentoring relationships to ignite the power and potential of young people. The NHBA is proud to support an organization which provides such a positive impact for the children and youth of our community.
